PROFESSIONAL DESIGNATIONSCertified Plan Fiduciary Advisor (CPFA)

Important information about the Certified Plan Fiduciary Advisor (CPFA) designation: The CPFA credential demonstrates an adviser’s knowledge of, expertise in, and commitment to working with retirement plans. Plan advisers who earn their CPFA demonstrate the expertise required to act as a plan fiduciary or help plan fiduciaries manage their roles and responsibilities. Candidates for the CPFA designation must pass the NAPA CPFA Examination, which consists of 70 multiple-choice questions. In order to maintain the CPFA designation the CPFA must earn 10 continuing education (“CE”) credits annually. One (1) of the 10 CE credits must be on ethics/professionalism topics.

Jeremiah Pizana is an registered representative, licensed to sell securities. As a registered representative of an unaffiliated broker-dealer. Jeremiah Pizana may earn additional compensation in the form of commissions for the sale of general securities products such as stocks, bonds, mutual funds, exchange-traded funds, and a variable annuity to investment advisory clients. As such, Jeremiah Pizana may suggest that you implement investment advice by purchasing securities products through a commission-based account introduced through our unaffiliated broker-dealer in addition to an investment advisory account. In the event that you elect to purchase these products through our unaffiliated broker-dealer, Jeremiah Pizana, in the capacity as a registered representative, and our unaffiliated broker-dealer will receive the standard and customary commission compensation in connection with the particular product purchased. Clients have the right to implement the recommendations through the broker-dealer and registered representative of their choice. We require that all IARs disclose this conflict of interest when such recommendations are made. We also require IARs to disclose that the client has the right to purchase recommended products from individuals not affiliated with us.

Jeremiah Pizana is also an IAR of an affiliated/unaffiliated registered investment advisory firm and can provide additional investment advisory services that are not available with our firm. As a registered IAR of an affiliated/unaffiliated investment adviser, Jeremiah Pizana may earn additional fee-based compensation by providing investment recommendations for the sale of general securities products such as stocks, bonds, mutual funds, exchange-traded funds, real estate investment trusts, pooled investment vehicles, and/or a variable annuity to investment advisory clients. Clients have the right to implement the recommendations through an investment advisory firm and investment adviser representative of their choice. We require that all IARs disclose this conflict of interest when such recommendations are made. We also require IARs to disclose that the client has the right to purchase recommended products from individuals not affiliated with us.

Jeremiah Pizana is also an insurance agent licensed to sell insurance products. A conflict of interest exists because these services pay a commission, which conflicts with the IAR's fiduciary duties. LCFP does not require its IARs to encourage clients to implement investment advice through our insurance product recommendations. Clients have the right to implement insurance product recommendations through the insurance agency and agent of their choice. We require that all IARs disclose this conflict of interest when such recommendations are made. We also require IARs to disclose that the client has the right to purchase recommended products from individuals not affiliated with us.
